

Bronwyn Ritchie

Speaker & Speaking Coach

Empowering You to Speak Your Story, Share your Gift with the World

Bronwyn is an engaging speaker, trainer & coach who teaches others to use speaking confidently and effectively in leadership, in business and in the events setting.

She has spoken and trained in many centres around Australia, helping leadership candidates, CEOs, and individuals from those too shy to say their own name in front of an audience to professional trainers building an edge.

Her approachable manner and compassionate support for her clients and her audiences allows them to articulate a clear message, and to develop an authentic speaking style that supports the message and assures an effective outcome, whether that be to be admired and rehired, to build a business or to contribute to a successful function or event.

Speaker Reviews

“Bronwyn provides extremely useful information at her ... workshop. I was able to apply what I had learned straight away, and it definitely improved the presentation I subsequently delivered to 25 referrers for my business. I was more confident going in to my presentation as I felt prepared, having had instruction from someone with a lot of experience in public speaking.” ... Amanda, Brisbane

Your whole presentation was an ah-ha for me. It will help me gain confidence in the area I want to teach in. Caroline, Gold Coast

You have such a great knowledge in so many different subject areas and also have a great ability to impart that knowledge with joy and fun Bernadette, Brisbane

Your work and approach show great enthusiasm, dedication, research, creativity, clear suggestions, everything well explained - I could go on and on. - Rachael, Adelaide
